

Launching Ceremony for “2006 World Water Monitoring Day” programme in Hong Kong
at Tai Lam Chung Reservoir

Sunday 15 October 2006
Ceremony Rundown

- 2:30 – 3:00 pm Reception
IWAHK Chairman and representatives to receive guests. WSD’s representatives and a Waterworks Chemist to receive schools and give a 10-minute briefing on water sampling and testing during the reception period.
- 3:00 – 3:05 pm Welcome Speech
Chairman, IWAHK (Director of Water Supplies)
- 3:05 – 3:10 pm Speech by Officiating Guest
Permanent Secretary for the Environment, Transport and Works(Works)
- 3:10 – 3:15 pm Presentation of Souvenirs to Guests and Sponsors
IWAHK Chairman to present souvenirs to Officiating Guest, representatives from government departments and sponsors.
Officiating Guest to present souvenirs to representative of HKUST, St John Ambulance, WSD Volunteer Team, and IWAHK Chairman.
- 3:15 – 3:20 pm Group Photo Taking
- 3:20 – 3:25 pm Commencement of Tests
Officiating Guest, accompanied by IWAHK Chairman, will command the commencement of site sampling and testing officially by blowing a hand-held sports horn.
- 3:25 – 4:05 pm Sampling and Testing
Representatives from schools will carry out testing under the supervision of a Waterworks Chemist. Each school will perform tests for 5 water samples and report the results using a prescribed form.
- 4:05 – 4:15 pm Quiz
Representatives from HKUST will arrange and conduct a quiz on water-related matters.
- 4:15 – 4:30 pm Presentation of Souvenirs to Participating Schools
Presentation of souvenirs to participating schools (20 nos.) and the quiz winners by IWAHK Chairman
- 4:30 pm End of Ceremony
-